- 2.. Grammatical Error in CTA Button Text – “Shop Womens’s Shoes”

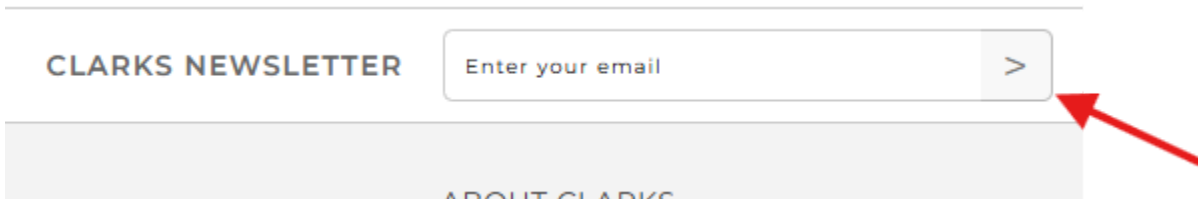

3. Missing “Shop Now” CTA on slides with strong visual.

4. the Women mega menu, the “Women’s New Arrivals” promotional banner is displayed as a static image without any user interaction cues. The banner does not contain any call-to-action (CTA) such as “Shop Now” or “View Collection,” and it is not clearly clickable. Additionally, there is no hover effect, cursor change, or visual feedback when users move the mouse over the banner.

6. Empty field of the news letter input box then click the button not showing any error message

9.The category labels “Womens” and “Mens” are grammatically incorrect. They are missing apostrophes and should be written in possessive form.

1. On the Product Detail Page (PDP), the image gallery is displaying images of other color variants that do not match the currently selected color variant. When a user selects a specific color, the gallery should update to show only the images related to that selected variant. However, images from different color options are still visible in the gallery.
